Principal's Message

Well another school year has begun. I would like to welcome everyone back both students and parents and a number of new students and parents. We are up and running and students as well as teachers are settling in to their established routines. Our total numbers are about where we expected them to be last year and we are looking forward to another great year. Course changes and our opening assemblies have all been completed.

As I outlined in our summer communication, we do have some new staff members that I would like to introduce to you. Mrs. Webster is joining us as our new Vice-Principal, she comes to us from Yale Secondary. Next we have Mrs. Sargent who will be our new Band and Musical Theater teacher, Mrs. Krossa who will be filling in for Mrs. Smoes until her return from a maternity leave in Oct., Mrs. Long our new Educational Assistant and in the office we have Mrs. Peters.

We are looking to have our first "Meet the Teacher" evening this Thursday beginning at 5:30 pm. with an invitation to a pizza and samosa dinner. We will be joining the middle school so you can come and see both schools and staffs, especially if you have children in both schools. Please take this time to come and meet with your son or daughter's teachers as we rely heavily on Parents and Partners as a "traditional" school. This is not designed to be an individual progress report for your child but rather a time to meet with the teacher and see class procedures and review their course outcomes. See the following announcement for details.

Fri. Sept. 23 will be a Professional Development Day where there will no school classes for students.

Please be mindful of our crowded parking lot at school's end. Please keep the bus lane in front of the school's front doors clear for the busses and thank-you for observing when they leave allowing them to leave together as they have to keep their schedules as they stop at other schools.

If you have any questions about anything school related please don't hesitate to contact us, either me personally at glen_hildebrand@sd34.bc.ca or anyone of our staff by e-mail on the school website or at 604-850-7029.

Sincerely,
Glen Hildebrand, Principal, ATSS

Exciting Changes... Now and in the Future!

Starting August 31st, the AYHC will be moving to its 5th location since it opened in November of 2010. Our current location on McCallum has seen tremendous growth of the AYHC and has built a lot of memories for staff, youth, families and the community. But, we're excited to be moving to a new area of town, where new youth will have us closeby - while still being on a main bus route (Route 2). See details below.

In June of this year, Abbotsford was selected to be the Fraser Health Region pilot site for the BC Integrated Youth Services Initiative... which means the AYHC will move to a new Youth Hub sometime in 2017. This falls right in line with what youth and families have been telling us since we opened... The more of a one-stop shop we can have, the more likely we'll achieve the AYHC's mission of "Helping Abbotsford's youth develop the lifelong habit of protecting and enhancing all aspects of their health."

Obviously, the best people to collaborate with to develop the youth hub, run it, and help it evolve over time is youth and families themselves. We've already got a bunch of youth and family members involved, but there's a lot to do... so more people, perspectives and knowledge are always welcome! See below for information about joining one of our working groups.

YOUTH CLINIC IS MOVING!!

We'll be closed:

- Thursday, August 25
- Monday, August 29
- Tuesday, August 30

We're open again on Wednesday, August 31 at:

#201-31205 MACLURE RD

You can get there on the #2 bus

We'll have our sandwich board sign out for you.

Our new days and hours at the new location:

- Tuesdays 3 - 7pm
- Wednesdays 3 - 6pm
